THE WHITE FAMILY.

THERE have been compiled and published several books giving the genealogy of branches of the White Family, but so far as I have been able to ascertain, none of them embraced our branch of it. It seems strange that none of its members have ever taken up the matter before, as it becomes more and more difficult to trace the records as the years pass. What might have been accomplished in this direction with ease fifty years ago will, fifty years hence, become an impossibility. At this late day I have undertaken the task, but had it not been for valuable information given me by Mr. Elbert White, of Stamford, Conn., I should have made but little progress "looking backward;" and even now I fear many errors may have crept in, and I will thank any member of the family discovering errors to communicate with me, with a view to their correction, and to the end that we may eventually have an absolutely correct record of our branch of the White Family. It is quite certain that unless some one makes a beginning such a desirable result will never be attained. It is quite possible that some member may have records and dates reaching farther back than those I have been able to obtain, or completing some now incomplete ones, in which case I hope they will advise me. It is to be hoped that some one has the facilities and sufficient interest to find out who was the founder of this branch and whence he came.

JAMES WHITE probably lived at Huntington, Long Island, then called "Island of Nassau." His son, also named JAMES WHITE, removed from Huntington to Long Ridge, or to Stamford, Conn. about the year 1717, as shown by the following records now in Stamford, Conn., which were furnished me by Mr. Elbert White. The two years occurring so often is explained by the fact that new and old style of time was then kept:

"Susanna Holley, widow of John Holley, quit claims to JAMES WHITE, Michael Waring and Thomas Brush, March 17, 1718-19, 246 acres of land, more or less, bounded north by Colony of New York, east by hills or mountains on east side of great meadows, south by Stoney Brook and marked trees, west by Miannus River. Bought July 7, 1717-18. Recorded July 24, 1717-18, by Thomas Brush, Michael Waring and JAMES WHITE. Michael Waring of Queen's Village, Queen's Co., Long Island, and JAMES WHITE and Thomas Brush, each of Huntington, Long Island.

"John Waring, of Oyster Bay, makes agreement with JAMES WHITE, a recorded instrument by which provision is made for welfare of the children he might have (if any), by his daughter, whom JAMES WHITE is about to marry—dated 1720-21."

The following is an extract from a letter written by Mr. Elbert White, on Nov. 18, 1880, touching the correctness of dates which appear on the family monument at Long Ridge:

"There is a monument in the graveyard at Long Ridge, erected by JAMES H. WHITE, of New York, and my brother brought me down the record taken from it. I was much puzzled by it, as regarded the date of death of JACOB WHITE and of LEBBEUS WHITE, and felt sure there must have been an error, as JACOB WHITE's birth was given 1701 and death 1779, aged 78 years, and LEBBEUS WHITE's death 1799. I went up to Long Ridge late in the summer and called on Greenleaf Youngs, who removed the remains to the monument, and with him went to the old graveyard in the place where your father and grandfather lived. I found that LEBBEUS WHITE was born in 1748, and was drowned in 1779, aged 31 years. The grave stone was in excellent condition, lying flat on the ground by the fence, the inscription as good as new. The grave stone of JACOB WHITE was by the house of Greenleaf Youngs, son of Daniel Youngs and HANNAH WHITE, who reside near my brother. I found he died in 1799, aged 78 years, and was born in 1721. This I also think must be an error as to time of birth. According to the town records, as you will see, JACOB WHITE, son of JAMES WHITE, was born in 1726-27. He was, perhaps, six or seven years younger than his wife. The names of JAMES WHITE's sons by Elizabeth Waring recur on the records, and JACOB WHITE's more than any. JAMES H. WHITE being now dead, no one but his wife and daughter would, I suppose, have the right to correct the errors on the monument. I enclose you allusions to the WHITE families, which I obtained from the Town Records, the Land Records, and Probate Records. JAMES WHITE, it seems, was the name of the first one who came to Long Ridge from Huntington, and from the Probate Records it appears that his father's name was JAMES WHITE."

Israel Weed makes returns to probate court in 1785, of the estate of LEBBEUS WHITE, and the widow is appointed guardian of the minor children, SALLY, ABAGAIL and ISRAEL WHITE.

JAMES WHITE died July 8, 1729 (see probate records). This estate is owing something to the estate of his father, JAMES WHITE. His widow, Elizabeth Waring, has five children, and for four

JACOB WHITE, JR., in 1785, quit claims to WILLIAM WHITE, 25 acres.

Samuel Dean, in 1785, sells to widow ABAGAIL WHITE, 33 acres in North Stamford, and agreement made.

ABAGAIL WHITE, in 1799, quit claims to her son, ISRAEL WHITE, 93 acres of land.

WILLIAM WHITE, in 1797, is granted letters of administration on the estate of JACOB WHITE, JR.

In looking over the records we find the names STEPHEN, JOHN, ISRAEL, PETER WHITE and others, and the deeds show that they were brothers, and they refer to their property as being the same they inherited from their honored father, JAMES WHITE.

In arranging this genealogy, I have adopted the plan of taking the oldest person in the family first, tracing all the descendants of that person down to the present time, then taking the next to the oldest in the same family, and tracing down in same manner. By this means all the descendants of a person follow in succession.

H. K. WHITE.

Detroit, Mich., April 5, 1891.

FIFTEEN YEARS LATER.

Since the preceding was written many changes have taken place in our branch of "The Whites" through births, marriages and deaths. I have endeavored so far as possible to bring the record up to date, but doubtless there are many omissions, and probably some mistakes. It is very difficult to obtain correct statistics from some branches of our family, their indifference being marked. For the past fifteen years I have continued my researches which have not been entirely satisfactory. The number of Whites, first settlers in New England before 1692, is legion. They settled in different parts of New England, generally reared large families, with the same Christian names running through all; so it is a most difficult task to trace our lineage with absolute certainty. Mr. Horace Rusco, of Huntington, L. I., has been of the greatest assistance to me, having spent much time in thoroughly searching the records there. Mr. James Savage, President of the Massachusetts Historical Society and editor of Winthrop's History of New England, published in 1829 a genealogical dictionary giving the generations of those who came before 1692. It was the work of between twenty and twenty-five years, and embraced those of all conditions found there at that date. From this work Mr. Rusco copied for me all those bearing the name of White, and I can find no indications that we are descendants of Peregrine White, born on the Mayflower, Nov. 1620.

Mrs. Alice Johnson White, of Chicago, writes me that her brother, Hon. Peter White, of Marquette, Mich., regent of the University of Michigan, employed Mr. Dudley Teetor to do some genealogical work for him, and found that James White, the first mentioned in my former edition, was the son of John White and his wife Anne, and that his father was Thomas White, born in England in 1599. He settled in Weymouth, Mass., and died in 1679. He also gives some of the descendants of Thomas White: Samuel White, graduate Harvard in 1731, member of the Council of George III; Dr. Nathaniel White, graduate Harvard 1725; Lemuel Shaw (through Silence White) chief justice of Massachusetts; Caleb White, D.D., president Wabash College; Judge George White, of Norfolk, Mass., graduate Yale 1848. Mr. Savage mentions this Thomas White, and gives the names of five children, but does not mention John as being one of them; so I have some doubt about it. Still Mr. Teetor may be correct, and I shall start my record with Thomas White, born in England in 1599, trusting that some interested White will correct it if found wrong. Mr. Savage mentions "John White, of Lynn, who possibly as early as 1630 removed to Southampton, L. I., and had John, James, Sarah, Hannah, Martha, Abigail, and two other children," one of which very probably was Richard White who, at the time of his father's death, would be about fifteen years old. Eleven years later he may have removed to Huntington, L. I., and later on been joined by his nephew James White, son of James, son of John. The elder John White died about 1662, will dated May 23, 1662, and makes provision for his eight children, all of whom were under age; names his wife Anne executrix. To John and James he gives land to be divided between them; to his six youngest children, each a mare; to Sarah and Hannah, each "a chest I made for them." Inventory dated Aug. 24, 1662.

The first name of White to appear on the records of Huntington, L. I., was that of RICHARD, a copy of whose signature was traced by Mr. Rusco, and is reproduced herewith.

Richard White.

He was born about 1647, as will appear by a record which gives his age. He came to Huntington on or before 1673, for that year he was rated 3 s. 10 d. At a town meeting held on Dec. 7, 1675, it was granted that Richard White shall have a lot at the hollow westward of Meggs' lot, being the denomination of a hundred pound right; the ground to be cleared or built on "in ye space of one year." He purchased land from the town as late as 1703. He died in 1705 or 1706, for on May 21st, 1706, the following instrument was executed: "This indenture between Peter White, of Southampton, in ye county of Suffolk, upon ye Island of Nassau, in ye Colony of New York, of ye one part and James White, of ye town of Huntington, in ye County and Colony aforesaid, witnesseth: that ye above Peter for a valuable consideration to him in hand paid by said James, doth hereby acquit, discharge, &c., the said James White, his heirs, executors, administrators, &c., by virtue of my Father RICHARD WHITE's last will and testament, confirming unto said Peter an equal half of my accommodations lying and being in ye town of Huntington, and by these presents give, bargain, sell and release, &c., unto James this equal half of my Father's house and home lot, orchards, gardens, and all ye half of my lands, &c."

The above shows he had only two sons, Peter and James, at the time of his death; if he had any daughters the will would probably disclose them. His wife was probably dead at the time the will was made. Her name was Lydia Higbie, daughter of Edward Higbie, as would appear from court records at Huntington, where, on March 1st, 1682, Richard White and "Liddy" White give testimony in a matter of difference between Henry Soper and Jonathan Rogers. Richard White, aged about 35 years, testifies that "when he came to Jonathan Rogers' some part of the fence was down and further sayeth not." Liddy White, aged about 25 years, testifieth that "she heard Henry Soper's wife say that her husband sold a piece of swamp for a passel of rotten fence and further sayeth not."

While I am unable to find absolute proof, everything indicates that our branch descends from John White, his son James, his son James, his son Jacob, and so on down. If the above John was the son of Thomas it carries us back one generation farther, but adds little light to the solution of the question as to whom our ancestors were.

I repeat here what I said in the former edition, and with strong emphasis, that I will thank any member of our family discovering errors or omissions to communicate with me, to the end that there may eventually be an absolutely correct record of our branch of "The Whites."

In order to keep a correct record of the changes that will take place after this date, through births, marriages and deaths, I shall keep a copy in which to record the same, and if every member of our White Family will take the trouble to advise me, or Mrs. Anna B. Haulenbeek, Walton, Delaware Co., N. Y., when they occur, the genealogy can be easily kept up, and new and revised editions issued from time to time by some interested member following me.
